carter missed a short putt on the seventh which cost him the hole. He receivered immediately by making a 3 on the long eighth, 2 under par. Winning the ninth in a par 4 put him 2 up with medal total of 35 to Whittemore's 39.

Coming in they halved the tenth, eleventh and thirteenth. Carter won the twelfth, but lost the fourteenth with a 3 to Whittemore's 2. Carter made it 3 up on the fifteenth, where Whittemore missed a putt. A penalty stroke for Whittemore on the sixteenth cost him an opportunity of winning it after Carter had missed his second and the match ended 3 and 2 in Carter's favor. Carter came in with a 38; making a total of 73. Whittemore took 39 to come home with a total of 78. The summary:

Bout in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Ted Lewis was too fast and clever for Knockout Brennan in a ten round bout here this afternoon witnessed by 7,000 spectators. Brennan weighed 150 and Lewis 142½. It was a hard battle and Lewis had to go at top speed to hold Brennan off.

Lewis jabbed Brennan's lips until the blood showed and opened an old cut over the left eye. Lewis led in five of the rounds. Brennan took three with hard rounds, Brennan took three with hard body punching and sweeping swings that almost upset the Englishman and two were even, but not a round was tame. There were no knock downs, although Lewis hit Brennan with jarring right crosses that were enough to shake heavyweight. Lewis escaped without mark, while Brennan was marked

FINAMURST, N. C., Jan. 1.—Philip V.
G. Carter, Nassau, kept up his good work to-day by winning the chief trophy in the holiday week tournament from Parker W. Whittemore, Brookline, 3 and Williams and Nassau triumphed, 903 to 953.

Play began at the fourth green of the Piping Rock course and ended on Nassau's home green. In between the golfers traversed country estates, churchers traversed country estates, churchfor one fatal shot that hit a hydrant, a Parker W. Whittemore, Brookline, 3 and 2. Whittemore started off well, winning the first hole with a 3 by sinking a putt from edge of the green. The next three holes were halved and the two short holes Carter won in 3 each. Carter missed a short putt on the seventh which cost him the hole. He receible which cost him the hole. He receible which cost him the hole. He receible was the cost of Piping Rock.

ers traversed country estates, church-yards, roads, woods and as a last hazard, before emerging the for one fatal shot that hit a hydrant, a barn, a house, a tree and various other things. Maiden declared that his best have hot in the receible was the content of the spot from which it was played. The rules of golf were changed slightly in order to keep the contestants from getting into hopeless difficulties. The ball could be teed up for every shot and the negative for a lost ball was one stroke.

K. O. Brown has taken up his residence in Arlington, N. J., and is ambitious to obtain the title of lightweight champion of the Mosquito State. The chief contender for this honor is Banty Lewis of Newark and after many challenges the Pioneer Sporting Club has arranged a match between the pair for the next show of the club. Brown has just returned from a trip to Gary, Ind., where he was disappointed in a bout because of the illness of the boy selected to meet him. He has begun training for the bout with Lewis, who is considered the best lightweight turned out Brooklyn fans have been well catered 8-42, and W. H. Merrall, 32, 9-41.

LOSERS' STAR, POLLARD.

The play in the first half was even

In the third period Washington started off with a rush, line plunges by Bangs and Boone and end runs by Dietz carrying the ball to Brown's 5 yard line shortly after the half started. Here the ball was lost to Brown on a fumble. and Andrews punted out to midfield.

Another series of line bucks and end runs was started by Washington and
